SOUTHBOUND
AGAIN!

It's that time—packing up the old Lazy Daze and heading south to escape the Northwest chill. We'll miss Orcas (always do), but the desert is calling.

We will be braving the traffic, chaos, and crime. But once we hit Eastern Oregon, it's smooth sailing: quiet two lane roads, blue skies, and sunshine for days.

These annual trips act as a reminder of how fortunate we are to be an islander, but Pahrump was 84° while I am writing this—just saying.
See you in the spring, island life. We're off to chase the heat!
